

LUNCH & LEARN

Promote your brand and products with hundreds of motivated distributors during a catered lunch on Education Day. This hour-long event offers 10 suppliers category exclusivity through a product presentation – either live or through a video – in front of a captive audience of distributors enjoying lunch during a rare break in their day.

Educate distributors on your product and the potential target markets. Provide samples or sell sheets that will be distributed to all attendees for further engagement, and follow-up with them after the show with the provided list of attendees.

Making an impression before the show opens positions you ahead of the hundreds of other suppliers they'll meet the next day, including your competition!
